Harrison Hotel Lease

From the Louisville Democrat. Love in the Law.

O love that onivers in a leaf, And blossoms in a rose. That smiles within the garnered sheaf, And in the sunlight glows-Sweet; tender love, that whispers low In every passing breeze. That murmers in the streamlet's flow, And tremble in the trees-

That lingers on the mountain's brow, And drapes the shadowy vale, Or shimmers on the fallen snow In moonbeams soft and pale-That gleams in every twinkling star, That glistens in the sky. And floats upon the clouds afar So grandly sailing by-

That lives beneath the silent sea, And pulsates in its waves, And sings in holy harmony With shells in ocean caves-Majestic love, that leads our gaze To rocky hights sublime, Unsculptured monuments of praise Upon the shores of time-

That stretches its unmeasured length The spacious earth around, And writes the story of its strength In blessings that abound-Behold, swees love, with grateful glow, We worship at thy shrine, And feel a thrill of joy to know Such blessings are divine.

But ob, sweet love, so matchless, grand, We feel a holier awe, As with nucovered feet we stand In presence of thy law-Of love so true and strong,

It lays its iron hand on sense

To save the soul from wrong. That tears the tendrils of the heart From twining that would kill And snaps the quivering chords apart, And leave them bleeding still. That fearless placks the dear right eye, And severs the right hand. To fix the longing gaze on high,

That law whose penalties are made For love's sweet sake so dire, Phat human souls in fear, in dread, May shun the eternal fire. Aye, made so dire that souls may learn Their fulest, truest worth, And learning, grasp the infinite, And prove their heavenly birth.

To grasp on Heaven's pure hand.

All hallowed love, so pure, so plain, How great that strength must be Which nothing spares of joy or pain To make us all like thee. Behold, we claim thee all divine, And bow with tenderest awe, As gratefully before thy shrine We own thee in the law. June 19, 1868.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fonling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., PRACTICAL AND ANALYTICAL CHEMISTS, LOWELL, MASS. PRICE $1.00.

curred in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public searcely need to Scroffmions poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Diten, this unseen and in side it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and surface or among the vitals. In the father, intercles may be suchenly deposited in the langs or heart, or lumors formed in the tiver, or it shows its presence by cruptions on the skin, or foul afterallons on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparaitla is alvisable, even when no active symptoms of discusappear. Persons affacted with the following complaints generally find immediate rehef, and, at
